AQUA EXPEDITIONS APPOINTS MICHELIN-STARRED CHEF KARIME LÓPEZ FOR AQUA LARES

Chef Karime López will define the culinary vision aboard Aqua Lares, Aqua Expeditions' newest ultra-luxury expedition yacht launching in 2026, delivering a destination-driven dining experience at sea.

6 January 2026 - Aqua Expeditions is pleased to announce the appointment of Chef Karime López as Consulting Chef for Aqua Lares, the brand's newest ultra-luxury expedition yacht set to launch in the Seychelles in February 2026. Chef Karime will oversee the culinary concept on board, designing menus that elevate the guest experience.

Born and raised in Mexico, Chef Karime López brings a highly personal yet globally informed culinary perspective. Her passion for food began in childhood — inspired by her mother's cooking and her family's restaurant background — before formal training in Paris confirmed her path as a chef. Her career has since taken her through leading kitchens across Spain, Mexico, Peru, Japan, and Italy shaping a style that is both expressive and precise.

In 2018, Chef López became the first Mexican woman to earn a Michelin star for her work as Head Chef at Gucci Osteria da Massimo Bottura in Florence, part of the Kering family of brands. That same year, she was named Chef of the Year in Italy, followed by further international recognition with the Best Chef Art Award (2022) and Best Outstanding Chef Abroad by CANIRAC (2023).

Under Chef Karime López's culinary direction, dining aboard Aqua Lares will be defined by cuisine that is elegant and closely tied to each expedition. Menus will balance Mediterranean influences with coastal Creole flavors, elevated through Japanese techniques and meticulous attention to detail.

Signature dishes will include a Zanzibar-spiced rib eye, perfectly grilled and finished with a deeply reduced demi-glace that delivers richness, smokiness, and subtle heat, and lobster tagliatelle coated in a luxurious ocean jus, slow-simmered with lobster and finished with caviar. Additional highlights will range from glazed short ribs with smoked carrot purée to Creole shrimp curry with fried plantain; citrus-forward profiles bring freshness and clarity to each plate. Together, the menus reflect Chef Karime's belief that true luxury lies in clarity of flavor, precision of technique, and food deeply connected to place.

With this appointment, Aqua Expeditions continues to push the boundaries of culinary excellence at sea, reinforcing its commitment to immersive travel where exploration, luxury, and gastronomy are seamlessly intertwined.
